Risk Disclosure Statement for Currency Spot Markets

This brief statement does not disclose all of the risks and other significant aspects of trading foreign exchange spot contracts, hereinafter referred to collectively as foreign exchange contracts. In light of these risks, the Trader should undertake such transactions only if the Trader understands the nature of the contracts (and contractual relationships) into which the Trader is entering, and the extent of the Trader's exposure to risk. Trading in foreign exchange contracts is not suitable for many members of the public. The Trader should carefully consider whether trading is appropriate for the Trader in light of the Trader's experience, objectives, financial resources, and relevant circumstances.

Currency Spot Market

1. Effect of Leverage.

Transactions in foreign exchange contracts carry a high degree of risk. The amount of initial margin is small relative to the value of the foreign exchange contract, so that transactions are leveraged. Leverage is the ability to control large dollar amounts of a foreign currency with a comparatively small amount of capital. A relatively small market movement will have a proportionately larger impact on the funds the Trader has deposited or will have to deposit; this may work against the Trader as well as for the Trader. For an example, an account with UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC permits you to trade foreign exchange contracts on a highly leveraged basis (up to approximately 100 times your account equity). An initial deposit of $1,000 will enable the account holder to take maximum positions with $100,000.00 market value. The funds in an account trading at maximum leverage can be completely lost if the positions held in the account have a one percent adverse swing in the market.

2. Risk-reducing orders or strategies

The placing of certain orders (e.g. stop-loss orders, or stop-limit orders), which are intended to limit losses to certain amounts, may not be effective because market conditions may make it impossible to execute such orders. In addition, the Trader must be aware that trading in spread or straddle positions may not be less risky than, and that these positions carry certain complexities not found in, a simple long or short position. Therefore the Trader should consider whether using these trading strategies is consistent with the Trader's objectives and goals in trading the foreign exchange contract markets. A spread or straddle trade is the simultaneous buying and selling of two related markets in the expectation that a profit will be made when the position is offset.

4. Deposited cash and property

The Trader should familiarize himself/herself with the protections accorded money or other property they deposited for domestic and foreign transactions, particularly in the event of a firm insolvency or bankruptcy. The extent to which the Trader may recover the Trader's money or property may be governed by specific legislation or local rules. In some jurisdictions, property which had been specifically identifiable as the Trader's will be pro-rated in the same manner as cash for purposes of distribution in the event of a shortfall.

5. Commissions and other charges

Before the Trader begins to trade, the Trader should obtain a clear explanation of all commissions, fees and other charges for which the Trader will be liable. These charges will affect the Trader's net profit (if any), or increase the Trader's loss. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC Spread Disclosure: Each transaction for the Trader's account includes a spread between the bid and the ask prices for any foreign exchange contract. The spread in the dealing rates is a cost imposed by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC on all trades for making foreign exchange contract transactions. The spread may increase or decrease based on the sole determination of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC. The Trader should consider the spread because it can affect the profitability of the Trader's transactions or increase the Trader's loss. The spread may not be the same for each foreign currency offered by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC or for each strike price within the individual foreign currency. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC Commission Disclosure: Each transaction for the Trader's account incurs a Transaction Fee of $1.25 per 10,000 base currency unit, charged to the account upon opening a position.

6. Electronic Trading

Trading on an electronic trading system with UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC may differ not only from trading in the inter-bank market but also from trading on any other electronic trading systems and will subject Trader to the failure of the electronic trading system of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC, including, but not limited to, the failure of hardware and software. The result of any system failure may be that Trader's order is either not executed according to Trader's instructions or is not executed at all. Since UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC does not control signal power, its reception or routing via Internet, configuration of Trader's equipment or reliability of its connection, UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC shall not be responsible for communication failures, distortions or delays when trading on-line (via Internet).

7. Additional disclosures and notices to traders

In connection with opening an account to speculate and/or purchase and/or sell foreign exchange contracts with UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC. Trader acknowledges that Trader has been advised and understands the following factors concerning trading in leveraged foreign exchange contracts.

A. Foreign exchange contracts are not traded on a regulated exchange. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC acts as the counter-party to all of Trader's foreign exchange contract transactions. There are no guarantees to the credit worthiness of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC is a Futures Commission Merchant registered with the National Futures Association. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC establishes prices for all foreign exchange contracts on the trading platform and the prices established may not reflect actual market values. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC has the right, in its sole discretion, to cease trading in any foreign exchange contract at any time, and in such event Trader will be prevented from liquidation of an adverse position. Such actions could result in a substantial loss to Trader. For these reasons, when entering into foreign exchange contracts there may be certain cases in which trading liquidity decreases causing trading in a certain Currency to cease, thereby preventing the liquidation of an adverse position that may result in a substantial financial loss. For this reason, these transactions may involve increased risks over trading in exchange traded contracts. Spot currency market transactions may be less regulated, or subject to a separate regulatory regime. Before the Trader undertakes such transactions, they should familiarize themselves with all attendant risks.

B. Trading in foreign exchange contracts is suitable only for those sophisticated individuals or institutions who fully understand all substantial risks involved and can withstand a loss of all monies, margins or deposits made with UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC. If Trader is not a sophisticated investor who does not fully understand this Risk Disclosure statement and Trader Agreement and is not capable of sustaining a loss of all monies invested, Trader should not proceed.

C. Trader acknowledges that the purchase or sale of foreign currency contracts always anticipates the accepting or making of delivery.

D. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's margin policies require that your account be properly margined at all times. In order to do so, it may be necessary to deposit substantial additional funds. Failure to meet margin requirements may result in the liquidation of any open positions with a resultant loss. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC reserves the right to liquidate all positions, without notice or margin call, if an account falls below our minimum equity level.

E. Foreign exchange contract transactions made by Trader with UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC are not traded on a regulated exchange and therefore do not require open-outcry. Open-outcry is a method of public auction for making bids and offers in the trading pits of futures exchanges. Even though quotations or prices are afforded by many computer-based component systems, the quotations and prices offered by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC may vary due to market liquidity and due to decisions at the sole discretion of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC

F. Trading on an electronic trading system with UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC may differ not only from trading in the inter-bank market but also from trading on any other electronic trading systems and will subject Trader to the failure of the electronic trading system of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC, including, but not limited to, the failure of hardware and software. The result of any system failure may be that Trader's order is either not executed according to Trader's instructions or is not executed at all. (Stated in paragraph 6 above)

The following additional risks exist when trading with UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC:

- i) Internet failures: Since UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC does not control signal power, its reception or routing via Internet, configuration of Trader's equipment or reliability of its connection, UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC cannot be responsible for communication failures, distortions or delays when trading on-line (via Internet). (Stated in paragraph 6 above)
- ii) Market risks and on-line trading: Trading foreign exchange contracts involves substantial risk that is not suitable for everyone. Trading on-line with UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC, no matter how convenient or efficient, does not reduce the substantial risks associated with foreign exchange contract trading.

- iii) Password protection: The Trader is obligated to keep passwords secret and ensure that third parties do not obtain access to the trading facilities. The Trader will be liable to UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC for trades executed by means of the Trader's password even if such use may be wrongful.
- iv) Quoting errors: An erroneous price quote to a Trader may occur as a result of failure of hardware, software or communication lines or systems and/or inaccurate external data feeds provided by third-party vendors. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC will not be liable for any erroneous price quote to Trader, mistakes or negligence. The foregoing list is not meant to be exhaustive and in the event of an erroneous price quote to Trader, UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC reserves the right to make the necessary corrections or adjustments for an erroneous price quote on the account involved. Any dispute will be resolved based on the fair market value of the foreign exchange contract at the time such error occurred.

G. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC will be acting as the counter party to all foreign exchange contract transactions made by Trader. As a result, it may be difficult or impossible for Trader to liquidate an existing position, to assess the value, to determine a fair price or to assess the exposure to risk. For these reasons, foreign exchange contract transactions involve increased risks. Foreign exchange contract transactions, with UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC, are not regulated or subject to a separate regulatory regime, as are exchange-traded contracts. Before Trader undertakes such transactions, Trader should familiarize himself/herself with applicable rules and attendant risks to entering into foreign exchange contracts with UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC

H. In the event that Trader grants trading authority or control over Trader's account to a third party (Trading Agent), whether on a discretionary or non-discretionary basis, UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC shall in no way be responsible for reviewing Trader's choice of such Trading Agent or for making any recommendations with respect thereto. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC makes no representations or warranties concerning any Trading Agent; UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC shall not be responsible for any loss to Trader occasioned by the actions of the Trading Agent; and UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC does not, by implication or otherwise, endorse or approve of the operating methods of the Trading Agent. If Trader gives the Trading Agent authority to exercise any of its rights over its account, Trader does so at his risk.

I. "US Bankruptcy Code states the following: The transactions you are entering into with [Member] are not traded on an exchange. Therefore, under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, your funds may not receive the same protections as funds used to margin or guarantee exchange-traded futures and options contracts, which receive a priority in bankruptcy. Since that same priority has not been given to funds used for off-exchange forex trading, if UGM becomes insolvent and you have a claim for amounts deposited or profits earned on transactions with [Member], your claim may not receive a priority. Without a priority, you are a general creditor and your claim will be paid, along with the claims of other general creditors, from any monies still available after priority claims are paid. Even customer funds that UGM keeps separate from its own operating funds may not be safe from the claims of other general and priority creditors."

8. TRADER'S ACCOUNT MAY BE INTRODUCED TO UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC, INC. BY AN INTRODUCING BROKER. (REFERRED TO AS INTRODUCER) INTRODUCER MAY OR MAY NOT BE REGISTERED IN ANY CAPACITY WITH THE CFTC OR NFA OR ANY OTHER REGULATORY BODY. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC ASSUMES NO LIABILITY FOR ANY REP RESENTATIONS MADE BY INTRODUCER. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC AND INTRODUCER ARE WHOLLY SEPARATE AND INDEP ENDENT FROM ONE ANOTHER. THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLCAND INTRODUCER DOES NOT ESTABLISH A JOINT VENTURE OR PARTNERSHIP AND INTRODUCER IS NOT AN AGENT OR EMPLOYEE OF UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLCFOREIGN EXCHANGE CONTRACT TRADING INVOLVES SUBSTANTIAL RISK. All the defined terms used herein shall have the meanings ascribed in the UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC Risk Disclosure Statement and in the Glossary of Terms.

In consideration of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC agreeing to carry one or more accounts of the undersigned (Trader) and providing services to Trader in connection with the purchase and sale of foreign exchange contracts, which may be purchased or sold by or through UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC for Trader's accounts(s), Trader agrees as follows:

1. AUTHORIZATION TO TRADE. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC will engage in foreign exchange contracts transactions with Trader in accordance with Trader's oral, written or electronic instructions. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC will act as the counter-party to the Trader in all such transactions. Each foreign exchange contract entered into between the Trader and UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC on the date of or after this Agreement is executed shall be governed by this Agreement.

2. GOVERNMENTAL, COUNTER PARTY INSTITUTION AND INTERBANKING SYSTEM RULES. All transactions under this Agreement shall be subject to all applicable Federal and State laws and regulations. If any statute shall hereafter be enacted or any rule or regulation shall hereafter be adopted by any governmental authority, the United States Federal Reserve, Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC), the National Futures Association (.NFA.), a contract market or clearing organization which shall be binding upon UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC and shall affect in any manner or be inconsistent with any of the provisions hereof, the affected provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed modified or superseded, as the case may be by the applicable provisions of such statute, rule or regulation, and all other provisions of this Agreement and provisions so modified shall in all respects continue in full force and effect. Trader acknowledges that all transactions under this Agreement are subject to the aforementioned regulatory requirements and Trader shall not thereby be given any independent legal or contractual rights with respect to such requirements.

3. MARGINS AND DEPOSIT REQUIREMENTS. Trader shall provide to and maintain with UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC margin, which is the minimum value on deposit in your account to establish a new foreign exchange contract position, or to add to an existing position, in such amounts and in such forms as UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC, in its sole discretion, may require. Margin amount levels may differ by contract, and UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC may change margin requirements at any time. In the event Trader's account contains insufficient margin at any time, UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC may at any time proceed to liquidate Trader's account and any failure by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC to enforce its rights hereunder shall not be deemed a waiver by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC to enforce its rights thereafter. No previous margin requirement by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC shall preclude UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC from increasing that requirement without prior notice. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC retains the right to limit the amount and/or total number of open positions that Trader may acquire or maintain at UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC reserves the right to refuse to accept any order. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC shall not be responsible for any loss or damage caused, directly or indirectly, by any events, actions or omissions beyond the control of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC including, without limitation, loss or damage resulting, directly or indirectly, from any delays or inaccuracies in the transmission of orders and/or information due to a breakdown in or failure of any transmission or communication facilities.

4. COLLATERAL AND LENDING AGREEMENT. All funds, securities, currencies, and other property of Trader which UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC or its affiliates may at any time be carrying for Trader (either individually, jointly with another, or as a guarantor of the account of any other person) or which may at any time be in its possession or control or carried on its books for any purpose, including safekeeping, are to be held by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC as security and subject to a general lien and right of set-off for liabilities of Trader to UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC whether or not UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC has made advances in connection with such securities, commodities, currencies or other property, and irrespective of the number of accounts Trader may have with UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC may in its discretion, at any time and from time to time, without notice to Trader, apply and/or transfer any or all funds or other property of Trader between any of Trader's accounts. Trader hereby also grants to UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC the right to pledge, re-pledge, hypothecate, invest or loan, either separately or with the property of other Traders, to itself as broker or to others, any securities or other property of Trader held by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC as margin or security. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC shall at no time be required to deliver to Trader the identical property delivered to or purchased by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC for any account of Trader.

5. LIQUIDATION OF ACCOUNTS AND PAYMENT OF DEFICIT BALANCES. In the event of (a) the death or judicial declaration of incompetence of Trader; (b) the filing of a petition in bankruptcy, or a petition for the appointment of a receiver, or the institution of any insolvency or similar proceeding by or against Trader; (c) the filing of an attachment against any of Trader's accounts carried by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC, (d) insufficient margin, or UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's determination that any collateral deposited to protect one or more accounts of Trader is inadequate, regardless of current market quotations, to secure the account; (e) Trader's failure to provide UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC any information requested pursuant to this agreement; or (f) any other circumstances or developments that UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC deems appropriate for its protection, and in UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's sole discretion, it may take one or more, or any portion of, the following actions: (1) satisfy any obligation Trader may have to UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC, either directly or by way of guaranty of suretyship, out of any of Trader's funds or property in its custody or control or in the custody or control of any UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC affiliate; (2) sell any or purchase any foreign exchange contracts, securities or other property held or carried for Trader; and (3) cancel any or all outstanding orders or contracts, or any other commitments made with Trader. Any of the above actions may be taken without demand for margin or additional margin, without prior notice of sale or purchase or other notice to Trader, Trader's personal representatives, heirs, executors, administrators, trustees, legatees or assigns and regardless of whether the ownership interest shall be solely Trader's or held jointly with others. In liquidation of Trader's long or short positions, UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC may, in its sole discretion, offset in the same settlement or it may initiate new long or short positions in order to establish a spread or straddle which in UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's sole judgment may be advisable to protect or reduce existing positions in Trader's account. Any sales or purchases hereunder may be made according to UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's judgment and at its discretion.

6. CHARGES. Trader shall pay such brokerage, commission and special service and all other charges (including, without limitation, charges by Introducer authorized by Trader, markups and markdowns, statement charges, idle account charges, order cancellation charges, account transfer charges or other charges), fees (including but not limited to) charges by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC for providing services hereunder. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC may change its charges without notice. All such charges shall be paid by Trader as they are incurred, or as UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC in its sole and absolute discretion may determine, and Trader hereby authorizes UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC to withdraw the amount of any such charges from Trader's account(s). Trader agrees to pay a transfer fee, to be designated by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC in the event Trader instructs UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC to transfer open positions, monies, and/or property of Trader's account to another institution. Spread Disclosure: Each transaction for Trader's account includes a spread between the bid and the ask prices for any foreign exchange contract. The spread in the dealing rates is a cost imposed by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC on all trades for making foreign exchange contract transactions. The spread may increase or decrease based on the sole determination of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC. Trader should consider the spread because it can affect the profitability of Trader's transactions or add to Trader's losses. The spread may not be the same for each foreign currency offered by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC or for each strike price within the individual foreign currency.

7. STATEMENTS AND CONFIRMATION. Reports of the confirmation of orders and statements of accounts for Trader shall be deemed correct and shall be conclusive and binding upon Trader if not objected to immediately upon receipt and confirmed in writing within (1) day after transmittal to Trader by mail or otherwise. Margin calls shall be conclusive and binding unless objected to immediately in writing. Written objections on Trader's part shall be directed to UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC, Inc. at its home office located at: 20 Park Plaza Suite 1000 Boston Massachusetts 02116 or the most recent address as indicated on the UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC website, and shall be deemed received only if actually delivered or mailed by registered mail, return receipt requested. Failure to object shall be deemed ratification of all actions taken by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC or UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's agents prior to Trader's receipt of said reports. Trader's failure to receive a trade confirmation shall not relieve Trader of the obligation to object as set out herein. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's failure to issue a confirmation shall not prejudice or invalidate the terms of any foreign exchange contract transaction.

8. COMMUNICATIONS. Reports, statements, notices and any other communications may be transmitted to Trader via United States mail or via email at the address provided by the Trader on Trader's application, or to such other address as Trader may from time to time designate in writing to UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC. All communications so sent, whether by mail, telegraph, messenger or otherwise, shall be deemed transmitted by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC when deposited in the United States mail, or when received by a transmitting agent, and deemed delivered to Trader personally, whether actually received by Trader or not.

9. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC RESPONSIBILITIES. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC will not be responsible for delays in the transmission of orders due to a breakdown or failure of transmission or communication facilities, electrical power outage or for any other cause beyond UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's control or anticipation. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC shall only be liable for its actions directly attributable to negligence, willful default or fraud on the part of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC shall not be liable for losses arising from the default of any agent or any other party used by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC under this agreement.

10. CURRENCY FLUCTUATION RISK. If Trader directs UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC to enter into any foreign exchange contract transaction: (a) any profit or loss arising as a result of a fluctuation in the exchange rate affecting such currency will be entirely for Trader's account and risk; (b) all initial and subsequent deposits for margin purposes shall be made in U.S. dollars, in such amounts as UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC may in its sole discretion require; and (c) UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC is authorized to convert funds in Trader's account for margin into and from such foreign currency at a rate of exchange determined by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC in its sole discretion on the basis of the then prevailing money market rates.

11. RISK ACKNOWLEDGMENT. Trader acknowledges that investments in leveraged foreign exchange contract transactions are speculative, involve a high degree of risk, and are appropriate only for persons who can assume risk of loss of their margin deposit or premium paid plus all charges including commission, costs and fees. Trader understands that because of the low margin normally required in trading foreign exchange contracts, price changes in foreign exchange contracts may result in the loss of Trader's margin deposit or premium paid plus all charges including commission, costs and fees. Trader warrants that Trader is willing and able, financially and otherwise, to assume the risk of foreign exchange contracts trading, and in consideration of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's carrying his/her account(s), Trader agrees not to hold UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC responsible for losses incurred through following its trading recommendations or suggestions or those of its employees, agents or representatives. Trader recognizes that guarantees of profit or freedom from loss are impossible to make in performance of foreign exchange contracts trading. Trader acknowledges that Trader has received no such guarantees from UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC or from any of its representatives or any introducing agent or other entity with whom Trader is conducting his/her UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC account and has not entered into this agreement in consideration of or in reliance upon any such guarantees or similar representations. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC assumes no liability for any representations made by introducer. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC and introducer are wholly separate and independent from one another. The agreement between UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC and introducer does not establish a joint venture or partnership and introducer is not an agent or employee of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC.

12. TRADING RECOMMENDATIONS. (a) Trader acknowledges that (i) any market recommendations and information communicated to Trader by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC or by any person within the company, does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any foreign exchange contract, (ii) such recommendation and information, although based upon information obtained from sources believed by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC to be reliable, may be based solely on a broker's opinion and that such information may be incomplete and may be unverified, (iii) UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC makes no representation, warranty or guarantee as to, and shall not be responsible for, the accuracy or completeness of any information or trading recommendation furnished to Trader, and (iv) UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC acts as counter party to all foreign exchange contract transactions and therefore UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC may profit as a direct result of any market recommendation or information relied upon by Trader which does not prove profitable to Trader. Trader acknowledges that UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC and/or its officers, directors, affiliates, associates, stockholders or representatives may have a position in or may intend to buy or sell currencies, which are the subject of market recommendations furnished to Trader, and that the market position of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC or any such officer, director, affiliate, associate, stockholder or representative may not be consistent with the recommendations furnished to Trader by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC. Trader acknowledges that UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC makes no representations concerning the tax implications or treatment of foreign exchange contracts; and, (b) Trader further acknowledges that should Trader grant trading authority or control over Trader's account to a third-party (.Trading Agent.), whether on a discretionary or non-discretionary basis, UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC shall in no way be responsible for reviewing Trader's choice of such Trading Agent nor making any recommendations with respect thereto. Trader understands that UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC makes no warranties nor representations concerning the Trading Agent, that UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC shall not be responsible for any loss to Trader occasioned by the actions of the Trading Agent and that UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC does not, by implication or otherwise, endorse or approve of the operating methods of the Trading Agent. If Trader gives Trading Agent authority to exercise any of its rights over Trader's account(s), Trader understands that Trader does so at Trader's own risk. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC assumes no liability for any representations made by introducer. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC and introducer are wholly separate and independent from one another. The agreement between UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC and introducer does not establish a joint venture or partnership and introducer is not an agent or employee of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC

13. TRADER REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. Trader represents and warrants that: (a) Trader is of sound mind, legal age and legal competence; and, (b) no person other than Trader has or will have an interest in Trader's account(s); and, (c) Trader hereby warrants that regardless of any subsequent determination to the contrary, Trader is suitable to trade foreign exchange contracts, and, (d) Trader is not now an employee of any exchange, any corporation in which any exchange owns a majority of the capital stock, any member of any exchange and/or firm registered on any exchange, or any bank, trust, or insurance company, and in the event that Trader becomes so employed, Trader will promptly notify UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC via e-mail of such employment; and, (e) all the information provided in the information portion of this booklet is true, correct and complete as of the date hereof and Trader will notify UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC promptly of any changes in such information.

14. DISCLOSURE OF FINANCIAL INFORMATION. Trader represents and warrants that the financial information disclosed to UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC in this document is an accurate representation of the Trader's current financial condition. Trader represents and warrants that in determining Trader's Net Worth, Assets and Liabilities, amounts were carefully calculated, then, Liabilities were subtracted from Assets to determine the value that Trader has included in the financial information as Net Worth. Trader represents and warrants that in determining the value of Assets, the Trader included cash and/or cash equivalents, U.S. Government and Marketable securities, real estate owned (excluding primary residence), the cash value of life insurance and other valuable Assets. Trader represents and warrants that in determining the value of Liabilities, Trader included notes payable to banks (secured and unsecured), notes payable to relatives, real estate mortgages payable (excluding primary residence) and other debts. Trader represents and warrants that in determining Trader's Liquid Assets, Trader included only those Assets that can be quickly (within one day's time) converted to Cash. Trader represents and warrants that Trader has very carefully considered the portion of Trader's assets that Trader considers to be Risk Capital. Trader recognizes that Risk Capital is the amount of money Trader is willing to put at risk and if lost would not, in any way, change Trader's lifestyle. Trader agrees to immediately inform UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC if the Trader's financial condition changes in such a way to reduce Trader's Net Worth, Liquid Assets and/or Risk Capital.

15. NO GUARANTEES. Trader acknowledges that Trader has no separate agreement with Trader's broker, Introducer or any UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC employee or agent regarding the trading in Trader's UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC account, including any agreement to guarantee profits or limit losses in Trader's account. Trader understands that Trader is under an obligation to notify UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's Compliance Officer immediately in writing as to any agreement of this type. Further, Trader understands that any representations made by anyone concerning Trader's account that differ from any statements Trader receives from UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC must be brought to the attention of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's Compliance Officer immediately in writing. Trader understands that Trader must authorize every foreign exchange contract transaction prior to its execution unless Trader has delegated discretion to another party by signing UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's limited trading authorization, and any disputed transactions must be brought to the attention of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's Compliance Officer pursuant to the notice requirements of this Trader Agreement. Trader agrees to indemnify and hold UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC harmless from all damages or liability resulting from Trader's failure to immediately notify UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's Compliance Officer of any of the occurrences referred to herein. All notices required under this section shall be sent to UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC at its home office.

16. CREDIT. Trader authorizes UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC or agents acting on behalf of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC to investigate Trader's credit standing and in connection therewith to contact such banks, financial institutions and credit agencies as UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC shall deem appropriate to verify information regarding Trader. Trader further authorizes UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC to investigate Trader's current and past investment activity, and in connection therewith, to contact such futures commission merchants, exchanges, broker/dealers, banks, and compliance data centers as UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC shall deem appropriate. Upon reasonable request made in writing by Trader to UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC, Trader shall be allowed to review any records maintained by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC relating to Trader's credit standing. Trader shall also be allowed, at Trader's sole cost and expense, to copy such records.

17. NO WAIVER OR AMENDMENT. No provision of this Agreement may be waived or amended unless the waiver or amendment is in writing and signed by both Trader and an authorized officer of UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC. No waiver or amendment of this Agreement may be implied from any course of dealing between the parties or from any failure by UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC or its agents to assert its rights under this Agreement on any occasion or series of occasions. No oral agreements or instructions to the contrary shall be recognized or enforceable. This instrument and the attachments hereto embody the entire agreement of the parties, superseding any and all prior written and oral agreements and there are no other terms, conditions or obligations other than those contained herein.

18. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION. This Agreement, and the rights and obligations of the parties hereto, shall be governed by, construed and enforced in all respects by the laws of the State of Massachusetts (where UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC's principal order execution facilities are located), without regard to choice of law principles.

19. SEVERABILITY. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in the Agreement should be held invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained in the Agreement shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby. The parties shall endeavor in good faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provisions.

ADDITIONAL RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

If your Customer Financial Questionnaire reflects one or more of the following:

1. An income of less than $25,000 US
2. A net worth of less than $25,000 US
3. You are not between 18 and 70 years of age
4. You do not have at least one year of futures or security investment experience

You should read this statement carefully because it may be interpreted that: (1) the amount of money you are considering depositing in the currency trading account may be excessive relative to your net worth or annual income, or (2) based on your age, investment experience or personal circumstances, trading of spot currencies may involve too high a risk of loss, and is inappropriate for many individuals. Based on the answers to the financial information questions, you have given, foreign currency trading may be inappropriate for you.

The trading of currencies involves an extremely high degree of risk of loss and is inappropriate for many individuals. Some studies have shown that more than eighty percent of investors who trade in Foreign Exchange ultimately lose money. You could lose all or part of the money you deposit in the currency trading account. If you meet any of the criteria set forth above, or if you have pursued only conservative forms of investment in the past, you may wish to study the risks of loss involved in currency trading further before you deem it an appropriate vehicle for you, or you may decide it is entirely inappropriate and never trade.

If you decide to open a currency trading Account, we ask that you acknowledge below that you fully understand the very risky nature of currency trading and that the funds you intend to deposit are purely risk capital (i.e. money you can afford to lose). You further acknowledge that the loss of any deposited funds will not jeopardize your style of living, nor will it substantially detract from your retirement program or other personal or family needs, and that such funds have not been borrowed. UNITED GLOBAL MARKETS, LLC reserves the right at its sole discretion to decline or limit trading activity an account which does not meet the above Account suitability requirements.

AGGRESSIVE & DAY TRADING AUTHORIZATION

I understand that aggressive trading, and especially day trading, which is the purchase and sale of a foreign exchange contract in the same day, thus ending the day with no established position in the market or being flat, is an extremely high-risk strategy. I understand that such trading generates substantial commission charges to my account. I understand that due to such active trading, the commission charges relative to the funds deposited in my account may exceed what is considered normal or prudent in Foreign Exchange trading. I understand that such commission charges will increase my risk of loss and can account for all or part of my trading losses.

I acknowledge the additional risks and agree to such an aggressive or day trading strategy. I further acknowledge that I am in control of, and responsible for, all trades executed in my account, and I agree to review my account and any open market positions daily and report any discrepancy immediately.
